PERSONAL IMPACT FROM IST’S CAPSTONE PROGRAM

Sabiha Tajul: “I am well-equipped to manage project timelines and effectively adapt to changing sponsor requirements while keeping the team aligned and the project on track.”

Salem Solomon: “I am more aware of the importance of continuous quality assessment, ensuring major issues by identifying and addressing errors early in the development cycle.”

Bitu Mushaikh: “I am more detail-oriented and understand the importance of thoroughly testing and reviewing deliverables before presenting to the sponsor to ensure everything works as expected.”

Tafany Anuz: “I am confident to contribute in a professional environment, with hands-on experience in delivering a complete software solution.”

Ahmed Salih: “I am proud of my professional growth, including writing documentation and collaborating under agile practices.”

Divit Kohli: “I am proud of my professional growth and being able to lead effectively and communicate with members and the sponsor.”

Throughout the semester, our team collaboratively contributed approximately 200 hours of effort, with equal participation from all members.

THANK YOU!
